

Minutes Sun City Summerlin Art Club

October 16, 2023 1:00 p.m.

VP Donna reminds the members to sign up for what they are doing or want to do for the Art Show on the forms being passed around the room during the meeting. (One starts from the front of the room on a clipboard and one from the back.)

Pres. Steve brings up the short but very important Saturday, October 28th, meeting in the art room at the Pinnacle for everyone who will be working in the Art Show - all volunteers!

Steve points out Linda Smith's watercolor class's work over on the tables, reminding members to look at them during the break.

Artwork for this Art Show is to be dropped off Friday, November 3rd at the Multipurpose Room in Desert Vista between 11:30 and 1:30. The Art Show is on Saturday and Sunday the 4th and 5th from 10:00 a.m. to 3 p.m. It is $5 per entry, maximum 6 entries, no bigger than 36 inches by 36 inches.

Vicki Malone is collecting stuff for the raffle. Steve, Bobbie, Jeff George, and Robert O'Neill are donating paintings.

This year we will be having a food truck and an ice cream truck!
We have advertised several places, including the Link and the Vegas Voice.

Now we'd like to introduce our guest speaker and last year's first place Mixed Media winner, Dennis Luis. "Why I do what I do?"

Introduces his Goldfish Series. His signature is "Freedom"

"Take that which is not and make it into something which is."

Basically, Trash Art - His pieces fit in a more contemporary décor. Does a lot of layering and transparency. Uses design, repetition, movement, direction.

Secretary Carol goes over the minutes from September 18th.

Steve Carlotti goes over the finances of the Art Club.

Break 1:45 -2:00

Steve reminds members that the November 20th meeting is very important, because we will have elections for the board. And the judge for the Art Show will be there to explain why she chose certain artwork as ribbon winners.

*We will also have a little celebration of the Art Show after the meeting with some snacks.

Our Holiday Party is December 11th at the Rampart Buffet between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. The price is just $12 per person. One guest is welcome at the same price.

Drawing. Meeting adjourned at 2:30.
