

SUN CITY ART CLUB MINUTES – FEBRUARY 20, 2023

Steve opens meeting 1:00 p.m.

Invites the new members to stand (two)

Reminds us that those who work for the art club will need a separate insurance, to be sure and look at the constitution that was emailed to us, and in April we will be voting for our new by laws.

Also, reminds us that an attendance sheet must be filled out at every get together, whether there is a teacher or not.

(At 1:15, we had 31 people in our meeting.)

Steve reviews the art meetings we have going on right now:

Monday - Doni – Desert Vista multipurpose room – beginning watercolor – 9-11 a.m.

Monday – Linda Smith – Pinnacle Art Room – oil/acrylic painting – 9-11 a.m.

Tuesday – Steve – Pinnacle Art Room – beginning oil/acrylic – 2-4 p.m. FREE

Wednesday – Linda Smith – Desert Vista multipurpose room – watercolor – 9:30-11:30 a.m.

Thursday – Diane – Pinnacle Art Room – acrylic pouring – 11a.m. – 1 p.m. FREE

Friday – no teacher – DV multipurpose room – advanced watercolor - 9-11 a.m. FREE

Friday – no teacher – Pinnacle Art Room - acrylic/oil painting – 9-11 a.m. FREE

Friday – no teacher – DV multipurpose room – colored pencil – 1:30–3:30 p.m. FREE

Tells us Doni is the committee chair for who displays work in the meeting every month.

March – Paulette will put out advanced watercolor art

April – Linda Smith will put out oil/acrylic paintings

May – Doni will put out watercolor art

October – Linda Stokey will put out colored pencil art

Carol Johnson does the January minutes for us.

Steve Carlotii does the February business report for us.

We have a balance of $7749.

On the evening of March 8th our club will have a display, along with the other clubs, at Desert Vista for people new to Sun City or looking to be in a new club.

We have new chairs that were donated to us in the Desert Vista multipurpose room.

Our new website is under construction:

suncityartclub.com

Our Art Show will be Nov. 4th and 5th this year

Maximum entry 36" by 36"
